

1 February 2019

Dear Parents

On Friday 15th February we will be having a 'Break the Rules' Day. Children will be allowed to break one (or several) of the school rules for the day for a fine.

Children will be able to choose to break school uniform rules by doing any of the following things:

- Come to school with crazy hair!
- Come to school with funky nails!
- Come to school wearing suitable but snazzy footwear!
- Come to school wearing body art! (Face paint, transfer tattoos, glitter)

Don't fancy any of these? Why not bring a snack to eat that ordinarily you would not be able to have *PLEASE NOTE THAT THE STRICT NO NUTS POLICY STILL APPLIES

There's just one condition, for EACH rule the children choose to break they must pay a 50p fine which they will bring to school with them on the day and hand to their class teacher. All money raised on the day will be invested into the school.

Only the rules specified can be broken and school uniform still needs to be worn.

Which rules will you break??

FoES Friends of Ettington School

Just a note; Friends of Ettington School appreciate all of the support that is given to raising money for our lovely school. If you have any ideas you would like to share please come along to the next meeting – Friday 15th February at 2pm in the school library or alternatively speak to one of our committee members. Everyone is welcome.
