Dear Parents

WORLD WAR 1 CENTENARY CELEBRATION SERVICE, ETTINGTON COMMUNITY CENTRE
9TH NOVEMBER 2018

Further to the flyer we sent home about the above celebrations we can confirm that all classes will be attending the service between 1.45pm and 3pm along with members of the local community.

Parents and relatives are more than welcome to attend.

We will be displaying Reception pupils art work for you to view.

Class 1 and Class 2 pupils' reflections video will be showed during the afternoon.

Class 3 and Class 4 pupils will be singing WW1 songs.

Class 5 and Class 6 pupils poetry will be shared.

Children will be involved in WW1 related activities all day and we would like them to come in fancy dress to reflect the WW1 theme. This could be as simple as wearing red (poppy themed) or more creative.

Some of the pupils work will be displayed afterwards, as well as during the service, in Ettington Church and the Community Centre. Please let the school know if you would rather your child's work or video not be shared.

Yours sincerely
