

Reception Summer 1

Who are the people in sacred (special) stories and why might they still be important today?

Christian Worldviews, Muslim Worldviews, Hindu Worldviews

Wisdom and Guidance

Questions: What makes a story special?
Can stories teach people how to behave?
Why are stories about Jesus important to Christians?
What can people in sacred stories teach us about the importance of making a good choice?
What can people in sacred stories teach us about the importance of making a good choice?
Who helps us to make good choices today?

Human and Social Sciences

Knowledge Building Blocks:

- Sacred stories impact people today, through celebrations, festivals or lived experience.
- Jesus is an important figure for those with Christian worldviews.
- The Nativity story (the birth of Jesus) has a connection with Christmas celebrations in Britain and worldwide.
- Sacred stories are often important in religious worldviews and the people in them are often seen as good leaders/examples.
- Muhammad (PBUH), Rama and Guru Hargobind Ji are special leaders who are sacred in Muslim, Hindu and Sikh worldviews and stories about them can be found in sacred texts and often link to celebrations.
- People with Humanist worldviews will often look to other stories for guidance in life, such as fables and other important moral stories .

Key Vocabulary:

Sacred: Special or important.

Holy Book: A special book for religious believers which talks about God. The Christian Holy Book is the Bible and the Muslim Holy Book is the Qur'an.