

Year 2 Summer 1

What is important for different people? Christian Worldviews, Muslim Worldviews, Buddhist Worldviews

- Questions:
- What is important to myself and others?
 - What do people say about God?
 - What do people say about God?
 - Why is God important to different people?
 - Which special books are important to different people and why?
 - Which special books are important to different people and why?

Authority and Power

Philosophy

Human and Social Sciences

- Knowledge Building Blocks:
- Many worldviews (including Christian and Muslim) believe in one God.
 - Buddhist traditions are almost exclusively non-theistic worldviews, meaning it is a worldview without a God but with an inspired individual, namely the Buddha.
 - In different worldviews, there are inspirational individuals that provide guidance to believers (e.g. Jesus, Prophet Muhammad, Guru Nanak).
 - Inspirational books are important to many religious and non-religious worldviews.
 - What might be important to individuals can depend on their background, location, history of belief.

Key Vocabulary:

Theist: Someone who believes in God.

Agnostic: Someone who doesn't know or isn't sure if there is a God or not.

Atheist: Someone who does not believe in God.