

Year 3 RE Spring 2

Salvation

Why do Christians call the day Jesus died 'Good Friday'?

Knowledge Building Blocks:

- Christians see Holy Week as the culmination of Jesus' earthly life, leading to his death and resurrection.
- The various events of Holy Week, such as the Last Supper, were important in showing the disciples what Jesus came to earth to do.
- Christians today trust that Jesus really did rise from the dead, and so is still alive today.
- Christians remember and celebrate Jesus' last week, death and resurrection.

Key Vocabulary:

Salvation: The saving of a person from sin or evil

Holy Week: The week before Easter starting on Good Friday

Resurrection: The rising of Jesus from the dead

Disciples: Followers of Jesus

Gospels: Tell the story of Jesus' life. Matthew, Mark, Luke and John

Outcomes:

- Order Creation and Fall, Incarnation, Gospel and
- Salvation within a timeline of the Bible's 'big story'.
- Offer suggestions for what the texts about the entry into Jerusalem, and the death and resurrection of Jesus might mean.
- Give examples of what the texts studied mean to some Christians.
- Make simple links between the Gospel texts and how Christians mark the Easter events in their church communities.
- Describe how Christians show their beliefs about Palm Sunday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday in worship.
- Make links between some of the stories and teachings in the Bible and life in the world today, expressing some ideas of their own clearly.
