

Year 4 RE Spring 2

Gospel

What kind of world did Jesus want?

Knowledge building blocks:

- Christians believe Jesus challenges everyone about how to live — he sets the example for loving God and your neighbour, putting others first.
- Jesus shows love and forgiveness to unlikely people.
- Christians try to be like Jesus — they want to know him better and better.
- Christians try to put his teaching and example into practice in lots of ways, from church worship to social justice.

Key Vocabulary:

Gospels: The four books that tell the story of Jesus' life and the good news he brings: Matthew, Mark, Luke and John

Parables: Short story with a religious truth

Justice: Being treated fairly

Leprosy: An infectious disease. Christians believe Jesus healed people with leprosy

Disciples: Followers of Jesus who were chosen to spread the good news

Outcomes:

- Identify the 'Gospel', which tells the story of the life and teaching of Jesus.
- Make clear links between the calling of the first disciples and how Christians today try to follow Jesus and be 'fishers of people'.
- Offer suggestions about what Jesus' actions towards the leper might mean for a Christian.
- Make simple links between Bible texts and the concept of 'Gospel' (good news).
- Give examples of how Christians try to show love to all, including how members of the clergy follow Jesus' teaching.
- Make links between the Bible stories studied and the importance of love, and life in the world today, expressing some ideas of their own clearly.
