

Knowledge Organiser

Year 1 Summer Term 2

Monet in France

Key vocabulary

Monet, France, Impressionist, Paris, London, Europe, Continent, Capital City, globe

Geographical Knowledge

- To know that a continent is any of the world's main continuous expanses of land and made up of several countries
- To know that there are seven continents in the world (Europe, Asia, Africa, North and South America, Australia, Antarctica).
- To know that both England and France are in Europe
- To know that Europe is one of the world's smaller continents.
- To know that in southern Europe the climate can be warm and sunny, but in northern Europe the climate is cooler.
- To know that London is the capital city of England and that Paris is the capital city of France

Art Knowledge

- To know that Monet was a French artist
- To know that Monet painted lots of pictures outdoors and was known as an Impressionist painter.
- To know that one of Monet's pieces of art was called The Japanese Bridge
- To know that Monet often painted picture of Lilies.

Design and Technology Knowledge

- To know how to plan and build structures, exploring how they can be made stronger, stiffer and more stable – The Eiffel Tower

MFL

- To know how to count to 10 in French
- To begin to know the names of several body parts in French – head, shoulder, knee, eyes, ears, mouth, nose

	Glossary
Vocabulary	Meaning
Capital City	London is the capital city of England and that Paris is the capital city of France.
Continent	A continent is a large area of land and made up of several countries.
Europe	Europe is one of the world's smaller continents and where we live
France	A country in Europe
Impressionist	Impressionist art is a style of painting that emerged in the mid-to-late 1800s and emphasizes an artist's immediate impression of a moment or scene, usually communicated through the use of light and its reflection, short brushstrokes, and separation of colours.
Monet	Claude Monet. (November 14, 1840 – December 5, 1926) was a founder of French impressionist painting.
London	The capital city of England
Paris	The capital city of France
Globe	A globe shows where there is land and sea on Earth.