

We visited Roman Alcester Museum. When we arrived, we were given Roman names and tunics to wear. We then explored an archaeological dig site, sorted parts of different pots that had been found, played Roman games and built a mini Roman fort. In the afternoon, we got to dress up as a Roman soldier.

